

...ultitime operation for Bolder, who has a retail home and another in Eagle River. He also sells galleries throughout the Midwest. His work can cover the United States and in parts of Europe. ...s an exciting form of pottery that began in Japan ...ars ago. The word 'raku' is interpreted to mean happiness, pleasure and delight. The process ...ctly all of those things," Bolder said.

...n instant form of pottery," he continued. "In a ...to 30 minutes a form can be made from clay, ...d, and cooled. Raku gives immediate results; ...nts can actually watch the pot inside the kiln ...owing red and the glaze change from the dry ... through a bubbling mass to the finish of wet ... It is an experience of fun and learning."

...r permitting, Bolder will be demonstrating the ...st outside the Exhibition Building at Marathon ...blic will be invited to observe and also to par- ...e process.

...e, art is an everyday experience," Bolder said. ...ays attempted to inject that little 'something ...y work — that can allow a common mug or ...elevated to a special position in the life of the ...it, and, in turn, perhaps being a catalyst to ...to experience life with more sensitivity and

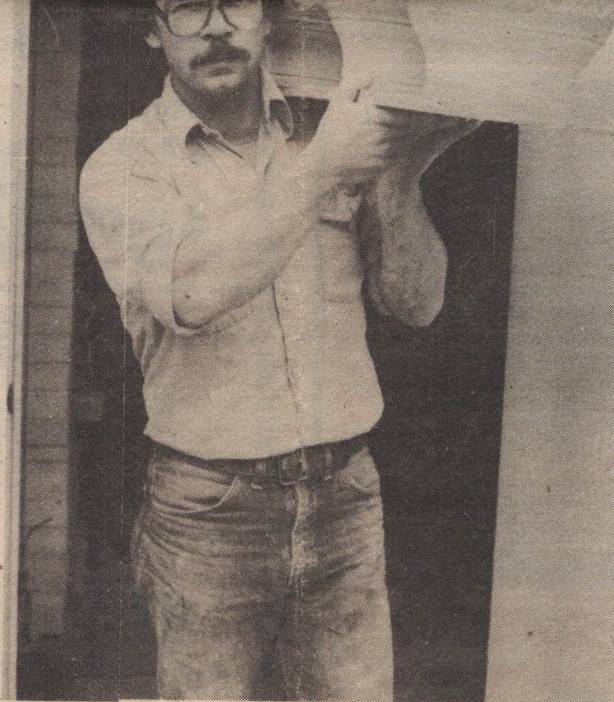

...nd his wife Pat are the parents of two sons, ...se. He was raised in the Gleason area; he grad- ...W-Whitewater with a degree in art and with the ...a self-supporting craftsman. For the past five ...done just that.

...ill be one of 85 and craftspersons at Art in the ...vings and the rotunda of the Exhibition Building ...with an almost endless variety of arts and crafts ...acrylic and watercolor paintings; charcoal and ...gs; stitchery; stained glass; quilling; batik; ...decoupage; macrame; leather; quilts; rose- ...; fiber; dried floral arrangements; duck decoys. ...akers, silversmiths and woodworkers will ...art along with makers of dough art, gingerbread ...etal furniture. There will be something for all ...g to Mary Barthels, Art in the Park chairman.

...artists and craftspersons from all parts of the ...exhibiting. From Green Bay, Bruce Grimes ...pottery demonstrations and Steven Schultz ...ntings of Wisconsin's vanishing landscapes. ...o be a number of artists who have galleries ...nty, along with many exhibitors from the ...ill area.

...roughout the two days will be provided on ...members of the Musical Pedal Pushers, who ...with Amateur Organist Association Inter- ...eadquarters in Edina, Minn.

...Park will be open and free to the public from ...p.m. each day. It is being sponsored by the ...ey Art Association.

Clayworks such as these will be seen at the Second Annual Art in the Park Saturday and Sunday at Marathon Park in Wausau. They are the creations of Rick Bolder of rural Gleason.

Mary Barthels (center), chairman of Art in the Park; Jan Pflieger (left) and Sandy Diel (right) co-chairmen, with various types of art they will be exhibiting.

Della Bopf photo