Exciting Watercolor Workshop Available

What could be better than ushering in the New Year painting with the Lakeland Art League and learning new watercolor techniques from an award winning watercolor artist and art teacher?

LAL is offering a one day workshop with observer, artist, watercolorist Dale Popovich in the gym of the Minocqua Town Hall. This workshop will be held Wednesday, January 2, 2019. We will start at 10:00 a.m. and run to 4:00 p.m., with a short lunch break. Check out Dale's website at dalepopovich.com for more information about him and his painting style. The subject focus for this workshop will be snow and pines.

Registration deadline is December 17, 2018. A supply list will be provided to you after registration. Cost for this workshop is $45.00. This will be nonrefundable but can be applied to other workshops or fees if used within the year. If we cancel, you will get a full refund.

Please send a check made out to Lakeland Art League to Lisa Krueger W3985 Oakview Road Tomahawk, WI 54487. Call me, Lisa Krueger, at 715-612-5775 to register or with questions.

Please forward this to anyone you think may be interested in taking this class!

Thanks.
